A WORD FROM FATHER BRANDON

With so much happening in the last few weeks, I failed to reflect - personally and here - on the end of the 97 day Liturgical juggernaut that was Ash Wednesday thru Pentecost. We went and prayed through and experienced together some remarkable moments of Grace, Beauty, and Truth! I often - as you know - lament and opine that I do not like Lent, but I must say this year went really fast and smoothly and I for sure captured some Graces and glimpses of the Lord that were new for me, so I am grateful. It feels like just yesterday was the Triduum and Vigil; I can't believe that was eight weeks ago! So much goodness in the life of the Church and our parish over these weeks, and I just wanted to say thank you to all who helped make these last almost 100 days extra special and meaningful to me and so many others. I want to especially thank our choir and those who lend us their voices and instrumental talents to serve us and the Lord in the Liturgy! The choir is now on their summer sabbatical so we won't hear them for a few months, but they deserve that break and our gratitude for how they offer so much to us! I just love praying and worshipping here, and look forward to every opportunity I have to be with you and Lord- what we do inside those four walls of both Saint Michael and Saint Margaret Churches is truly my sustenance, and I am just so grateful I get to do what I do !

I have included in this week's bulletin the list of those who are nominees for parish council. We will have an election next weekend. I will have ballots and pencils in the pews. We will have a second collection to gather them up. I will ask you to consider 3 names to cast your ballot for. This is a GREAT list of names! I will feel bad only bringing 8 on board, but I envision doing a lot more with a lot of people as time moves on. I am excited to begin having new conversations about new missions and ministries! It really will be a great thing, for all of us! Ultimately, our core mission and ministry remains The Lord and The Liturgy - hands down, full stop! That doesn't mean, though, that we just sit on our hands and stare at the wall - no! The experience of the Church in the Acts of the Apostles (whose entirety we just finished up with in the Easter Season) was not lethargy nor fanaticism. It was a Church of powerful witness to the love of the Gospel, familiarity with Scripture and Tradition, a hunger for Jesus, and radical poverty. The Apostolic Church really is what every parish ought to strive to be, to emulate, and to honor. I think parishes, en masse, can just easily fall into the pessimism and brutalism of the modern world. Not that any parish is bad, per se, but when we get stuck in old structures or ways of thinking - or, that classic saying is uttered, "but Father, we've always done it this way" - that is just an invite to let the brutality and iconoclasm of the world into our hearts, souls, and minds, and, thus, our parishes. Peter, Paul, Barnabas, Timothy, Luke, Mark, Titus, John...these were men set on fire with the Spirit - not a flame of cacophony or lethargy - but of love for the Salvation of Souls! Any parish or parishioner, in wanting to see what it means to be a Catholic Parish or parishioner can look to these ancient giants and pillars of our Church and find inspiration and vision. Why? Because we are people rooted and who operate solely from Scripture and Tradition - not ingenuity or novel cleverness or the latest program - but The Word of God and the Sacred Liturgy and Truths of the Faith! As we move into a new moment in the life of the parish, let us become students of the Apostolic Church who carry no baggage and no preconceived ideas or notions. The Lord left them, not a blueprint, but the Spirit! Let us continue our Pentecost - our Confirmation - by growing as parishioners and a parish in the way of these ancient, yet ever new, giants whose sons and daughters we are!

Love,
Father Brandon
